million in investments by foreign official organizations, purchase by Canada of $500 million of special U.S. government securities and a special sale of securities to Germany to offset U.S. military expenditures here.

"Apart from the special financial transactions by official agencies and various temporary developments," a Commerce Department spokesman said, "the second quarter balance of payments measured on the liquidity basis on all other transactions was probably not much different from that of the first quarter of 1968, but somewhat improved from that of a year earlier."

Morrilton Police Rebuff ABC Agents

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP)—An agent of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board says he and another agent were told to take their "business elsewhere" when they attempted to book five persons at the Morrilton Police Department.

Jerry Mahan, an ABC agent, says he and C. H. Harrelson arrested five under-age persons Monday night for purchasing beer illegally.

Mahan said Harrelson knocked on the locked door of the police department and Officer Gene Price opened it. Mahan said Harrelson informed Price that there were some people to be booked and Price responded by saying, "Take your business elsewhere."

Police Chief Arnold Wall was in Little Rock Thursday night where his wife reportedly was ill. Price was also unavailable. Leo Denton, Wall's assistant, said he had read of the alleged incident but did not know whether it had occurred or not. "I haven't talked to the night boys," Denton said.

Judge Fred Rehm of Martin Township has ordered the five persons to appear before him this morning. Rehm issued the order Monday night after conducting a hearing on the steps of the Conway County Courthouse.

Mahan said he knew of no animosity between the ABC and Morrilton Police and could not understand Price's alleged actions.

Nigeria Has Rejected Bid for Ceasefire

By ARNOLD ZEITLIN
Associated Press Writer
LAGOS, Nigeria (AP)—With his troops reported advancing on Biafra's temporary capital, the head of Nigeria's military government today rejected Ethiopian Emperor Haile Selassie's call for a cease-fire in the civil war.

Maj. Gen. Yakubu Gowon also said he would not go to Addis Ababa, the Ethiopian capital, in answer to the emperor's invitation to meet there with Lt. Col. C. Oduagwu Ojukwu, leader of secessionist Biafra, and five other African heads of state on the Organization of African Unity's Nigerian committee.

Nigerian forces were reported 10 miles south of the temporary Biafran capital of Aba today, but informants said elements five miles to the east were running into stiff opposition.

Col. Benjamin Adekunle, whose 3rd Marine Commando Division is driving up from Port Harcourt toward Aba, urged that troops guarding the northern line of the secessionist state be sent in to relieve the pressure on his men.

Adekunle's two commando columns reached the Iro River Wednesday in their drive northward. The column on the west reportedly occupied a village 10 miles south of Aba. But the second prong hit strong opposition in the densely populated Iro heartland.

Radio Biafra claimed the rebels had pushed Nigerian forces back across the river from Akwete, a settlement on the north bank, destroying three boats and killing 65 men. But the Nigerian command said that it held Akwete.

In Addis Ababa, peace talks continued in a stalemate, and the Nigerian negotiators rejected new proposals for relief flights of food and medicine to the millions of starving Biafrans. The Lagos government turned down a plan for flights to an air strip on Biafran soil that would be controlled by the International Red Cross.

Commenting on the proposal, which was endorsed by Red Cross Commissioner August Lindt, the Nigerian delegation said: "The federal government, as already indicated, will only permit flights of supplies to Enugu, from where they will be carried southward by road."

Enugu, the former Biafran capital, has been in Nigerian hands since October. But the Biafrans refuse to receive food passing through Nigerian territory because they fear the Nigerians will poison it. Nigeria opposes an airlift because the Biafrans have been getting arms as well as food by planes running the Nigerian blockade.

The Swedish air charter company Transair announced it would continue flights of relief supplies using a secret new route opened last weekend by one of its pilots. The pilot said the route avoided Nigerian anti-aircraft sites.

Getting the Hard-Core Jobless to Work Made Difficult by Politics

By ANN HELLMUTH
Associated Press Writer
CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—An executive of the National Alliance of Businessmen has told President Johnson that 140,000 jobs have been found for the hard-core unemployed.

But the report from Leo C. Beebe, NAB executive vice chairman, indicated the campaign met difficulties from both right wing and left wing elements and from politicians. Beebe was cautiously optimistic concerning the long-range effects of the program.

"We are under no illusions about the difficulty of closing the gap between the jobs and the jobless," said Beebe, a Ford Motor Co. vice president. "Success hinges on our ability to change human habits, those of the hard-core and our own."

"Nothing could be more difficult. There is no formula for success. Progress is obstructed from the right by those who resist change and from the left by those who expect change to occur overnight."

In a report to the President on the first six months of the NAB's jobs campaign, Beebe said the alliance had obtained 310,000 job commitments and placed 140,000 people on the job.

"The alliance is well ahead of schedule in its basic assignment," Beebe said.

The NAB, launched last January, hopes to put 100,000 unemployed in jobs by next June and 500,000 by the summer of 1971.

Beebe said the employer who pledges a job for a hard-core worker in a suburban plant will be confronted with the problem of transportation from the city center to the suburb.

"In time, commuting will prove to be impractical and the employer will see that the only solution to the dilemma is either to set up shop in the city or move the worker and his family to the suburb," Beebe said.

He said the gap between the jobs and the jobless is what the alliance is all about," Beebe said.

The NAB has not officially re-

Croxtan Wants Debates by Candidates

Congress should reenact the law which made possible joint debates between major party candidates for President for television and radio broadcasting, Hardy Croxtan, Democratic candidate for Third District Congress, said in a statement.

Croxtan said he considered as major candidates those expected to get 10 per cent or more of the total vote.

The Rogers attorney said he believed the joint appearances by candidates would lead to increased interest in the election and enable the voters to make a more informed judgment. Enactment of this special law is required to permit participation of major party candidates alone, without the broadcast networks being compelled to give equal time to minor party or "nuisance" candidates, and was first enacted to permit the Kennedy-Nixon debates.

The people are entitled to this service by the national networks, Croxtan said, and he added he understood the broadcasters were eager to present the debates without advertising sponsors.

Croxtan also commented that he thought the amount fixed last week by Congress to carry on foreign aid—between one and two billion dollars—was about right. He said foreign aid had been of material assistance in the promotion of our military and economic policies, and cited the democratic regimes in Chile, Brazil, and Indonesia as among a number over the world which had been enabled to exist because of such aid.

Croxtan would not be able to stand up to the threats made by the Russian leadership without the knowledge of its leaders that there is an alternative to the Moscow program if the economic pressures become too great, he added.

Croxtan served for a time in the State Department, after World War II, being primarily engaged in the promotion of trade with European nations.

The charge against Hogue was that during October 1965, with other commissioners and commission employees, Hogue used a twin-engine plane belonging to the commission to fly free to an elk hunt at Meeker and during the same period had available a two-ton Jeep to transport equipment and gear to and from Colorado.

Hogue said the commission had learned about the handling of open doe season because of his visit with the Oklahoma commission.

Halley reportedly left for a 10-day vacation in Hawaii shortly after receiving the summons.

The charges against Hogue and Halley are similar to those made against Farris, another Faubus appointee.

More Rain, Warm for Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Widely scattered thundershowers and continued warm and humid weather is expected over Arkansas through the weekend.

A high pressure system ridge moved into the state early today, bringing moisture from the Gulf as well as hot winds.

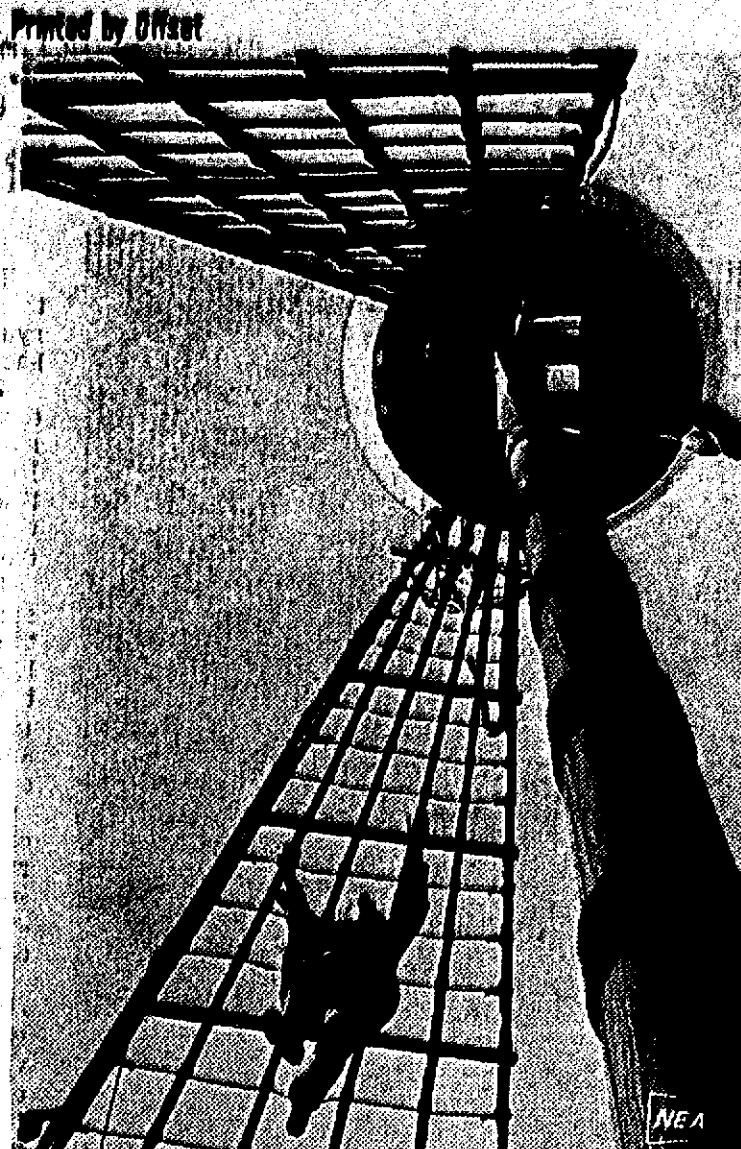

Little rainfall was reported around the state in the 24-hour period that ended at 7:30 a.m. today. Fayetteville had 0.13 inches, Pine Bluff 0.08 and El Dorado 0.21.

Low temperatures reported around the state this morning ranged from 73 at Pine Bluff to 77 at Texarkana. Highs Thursday ranged from 94 at Fort Smith to 87 at Fayetteville.

and that that constitutes a de-escalatory step, and that we could then get on with substantive negotiations in Paris."

Clifford suggested as an alternative Hanoi could get its message across indirectly by further lowering the combat level "for a lengthy period of time, with some word even through third parties that this constituted a recognition on their part of the need to get on with the Paris peace talks."

The drop in enemy activity has been noted by defense officials the past seven weeks, in terms of both large-unit and small scale actions.

U.S. combat deaths have declined, too, since the Tet offensive when as many as 400 to 500 Americans were killed in a peak week. They now average about 181 a week.

Clifford acknowledged the North Vietnamese have been withdrawing troops to border areas of their own territory as well as to Laos and Cambodia but he did not interpret this as de-escalation.

"This is a pattern that he has followed in the past," he said. "He moves the troops out of the battle areas so that he can start the regrouping and the refitting, and institute other preparations for attack."

"We have no alternative, obviously, but to proceed on the assumption that there will be a third enemy offensive," Clifford said.

10 Injured in Minden Explosion

MINDEN, La. (AP)—An explosion ripped through a bomb-loading section of the Louisiana Army Ammunition Plant near here early today and authorities said 10 persons were injured.

Three hours after the explosion plant officials said the resulting fire was still burning but under control.

Dr. T.A. Richardson, Webster Parish coroner, said two persons were seriously injured, one with burns over 90 per cent of his body and another with a fractured skull. The two seriously injured workers were transferred to a hospital at nearby Shreveport.

Plant spokesmen said the explosion occurred at 7:12 a.m. in the melt-pour operation on a bomb loading line where explosives are mixed.

"There was an undetermined amount of explosives involved in the explosion," the spokesman said.

There was no immediate estimate of damage and the cause of the explosion was unknown. Plant officials sealed off the area.

Lt. Col. James W. Donald, commanding officer at the plant, said there are about 7,500 contract personnel plus Army personnel employed at the plant.

The plant is located some six miles west of Minden, which is in northwestern Louisiana about 30 miles south of the Arkansas border. Residents in the Minden area reported the blast shattered windows in their homes.

Couple Saves Two Scouts

HOLDERNESS, N.H. (AP)—A Pennsylvania couple pulled two Girl Scouts to safety Thursday after the youngsters became stranded on the face of Rattlesnake Mountain, state conservation officers reported.

The officers said George Corson of Windsor, Pa., lowered his wife down to grab the wrists of Connie Manville of Center Harbor and her companion, Mitzi Ruel, then lifted the youngsters to safety.

Money for P.B. Apartments

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—The Federal Housing Administration Thursday insured a $1,020,000 loan for the construction of a 100-unit apartment complex in southeast Pine Bluff.

The project is designed to provide good housing for low-income families. J. Orville Cheney, director of the Little Rock Insuring Office of the FHA, said the project was the fourth of this kind to be approved in the state.

The Prudential Insurance Co. of America will make the loan.

Penal Farm Death Brings $100,000 Suit

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A suit, asking for $50,000 in actual damages and $50,000 in punitive damages, was filed Thursday in U.S. District Court by Mrs. Dora Lee Ingram, whose son died Aug. 2 at the Pulaski County Penal Farm of a blow on the head.

The suit was filed against County Judge Arch Campbell and the superintendent of the penal farm, Capt. Henry Beck. The suit contends that Campbell exercises his supervisory duties of the farm through Beck and that the defendants deprived Curtis Lee Ingram, 18, of his constitutional rights by subjecting him "to corporal punishment resulting in his death."

Bruce McCortley, 34, a trusty has been charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Ingram.

The suit says Ingram was ordered to work Aug. 2 although he informed the farm superintendent he was sick. The suit contends that Ingram was "whipped with a stick" after telling a trusty and guard he was unable to work. The suit says that "subsequently further corporal punishment was administered to Ingram by the trusty, resulting in Ingram's death."

The raisin industry of California was started by the Jesuit friars, priests and Franciscan padres.

Candidates Get Share of Movie Stars

By ROBERT T. GRAY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Zsa Zsa and Eva Gabor come out for Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey. Sen. Eugene McCarthy counters with a pair of well-known A-lens — Steve and Woody.

Leonard Bernstein backs McCarthy. Humphrey has Robert Merrill.

After the scramble for delegates, recruiting big names from the entertainment world appears to have a high priority in the Humphrey-McCarthy competition for the Democratic presidential nomination.

A third candidate, Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota, entered the race only last Saturday and apparently hasn't had either the time or inclination to comb the dwindling ranks of stage, movie, television and concert performers still uncommitted.

The McCarthy camp fielded scores of performers in a series of rallies across the nation Thursday night, with Harry Belafonte sharing billing with the candidate at the main one in New York's Madison Square Garden.

The Humphrey headquarters jumped in shortly before those performances with an announcement—"for immediate release"—that the "Fifth Dimension" musical group had joined the Entertainers for Humphrey Committee.

With Simon & Garfunkel already enlisted on McCarthy's behalf, his forces managed to survive the opposition maneuver.

The McCarthy camp includes performers under the broad heading of "Arts and Letters." The approach brings together Brooks Atkinson, Polly Bergen, Red Buttons, Betty Friedan, John Kenneth Calbraith, Robert Goulet, Jean Kerr, Bob Newhart and Igor Stravinsky, among many others.

In his more compartmented approach, Humphrey has an entertainers committee (Danny Thomas, Jerry Lewis, Soupy Sales, Al Hirt, Jane Morgan and Peter Duchin, to name a few) and a separate Arts & Letters listing.

Elected by Both Parties

INKSTER, Mich. (AP) — Julian Nowak of this Detroit suburb was elected as both a Democratic and Republican precinct delegate in Michigan's Aug. 6 primary. State election officials say there is no law prohibiting Nowak from serving as a delegate for both parties.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

ANOTHER "WHY OH WHY?"

Dear Helen: Please tell me whyohwhy is it that a man who can take apart a whole car and put it together again right can't master a little simple operation like punching the right button on an automatic washing machine? Or why he always fouls up the dishwasher whenever he uses it?

He wouldn't think of overloading the engine to his power saw, but he'll put 20 pounds of clothes in an 11-pound washer and wonder why it stops spinning. And no matter how I tell him, he figures because I'm a woman I don't know anything and goes blithely ahead ruining my equipment.

What do you do with a man like that?—BAFFLED

Dear Baf: You catch on to his little game and stop asking him to do woman's work. At the same time you might get terribly clumsy with the storm windows, lawnmower, and outdoor paintbrush—man's departments.

Get it?—H.

Dear Helen: I found my husband in an affair, and forgave him. We were separated two weeks, then he begged to come home, but Helen, it's as if he were still away. I know the affair is over, but he won't speak to me unless it's necessary, and he sleeps on the couch.

He is a model husband in every respect except for being remote. He took two part time jobs besides his regular one, to help with finances. He takes us on picnics, to movies, but ignores us. Only when we have company is he his old self. Then he talks to me and even teases. As soon as friends leave, he claims up again.

I love my husband terribly much, but I'll be heading for the divorce court if this keeps up. He hasn't said a word of endearment or kissed me in three months!—LOST INTEREST IN LIFE

Dear Lost: Have you made it plain the ghost of his girl friend isn't flitting around the house? A man can't act natural with a third party present.

Perhaps he's doing penance because he thinks you expect it. Maybe he's waiting for you to make the first move, while you wait in hurt silence for him to come to YOU.

Sad how many marriages drift apart because each partner expects the other to say it all. So say it, friend: Somebody has to—H.

Dear Helen: I certainly felt for the woman who bought expensive Christmas gifts for office workers and got very little in return.

I joined my firm last November. Immediately I was approached for a farewell gift to the girl I was replacing! Then it was ### a birthday present for my boss.

My salary: Minimum hourly wage; his, over $15,000 a year. Then I was told they exchanged $5,000 gifts at Christmas, plus a $3,000 donation towards decorations and a party. I ended up having to spend more for my new co-workers than I could afford for my family.

So just a plea to bosses and companies: Please hold down the collections. We aren't working to socialize but to help pay the rent, etc.—T.H.

Dear Helen: Please tell me, am I a mean vindictive woman because I get a warm glow when I notice that Elizabeth Taylor is developing a double chin?—HOSTILE OR NORMAL?

Dear Hor N: Normally hostile, and aren't we all?—H.

To Skim World in Super Saucer

NEW PORT BEACH, Calif. (AP) — C. M. Christensen says he'll skim the world some day in his super sailing saucer which he built because of the price of yachts.

He says it cost $15,000 to build the round ship during the past nine months. It's 40 feet in diameter, carries four hydrofoils and rides the waves on an air cushion. Rays of clear plastic radiate from its center.

While he test drives it in Newport Beach Harbor, Christensen says he won't let anybody see it from within.

The ship's so secret, he says, that its name is Top Secret. "I threw the mold away," he says.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — This is the time of the year when working is a way of life for the inhabitants of televisionland.

If you are connected with an established show that has gone merrily along for two years or 10, you worry about the competition and whether the viewers will love you in September as they seemed to last March.

If you are involved in a new series, you worry about everything—the competition, particularly if part of it consists of feature movie reruns; the time period; the scripts; the format and—mostly—the reaction of the fickle, inscrutable public.

The only relatively carefree crowd is found working in a series that was tossed into a mid-season vacancy in a network schedule and, somehow, caught on.

One of these last season was ABC's "It Takes a Thief," which not only proved a popular winner, but attracted an audience that saved the show that followed it, "N.Y.P.D.," which had been slated for extinction.

"I was pretty unhappy when ABC gave us that midseason spot," said Robert Wagner, the star of "It Takes a Thief." "I liked the show and I liked my character but I figured it was all down the drain."

The public liked the character, too. Wagner plays a jaunty, debonaire thief using his skills as a superagent. What makes it all sort of a mystery, however, is that at the time the show made its debut, jaunty, debonaire superagents had become a drug on the market—"Laugh-in," in fact, had replaced the jauntiest, most debonaire of them all, "The Man From U.N.C.L.E."

"Ours just took off," said Wagner. "When we started production all we had was one script. We worked 17 hours without a break and I think now the terrible pressure of deadlines kept us on our toes and added something."

Now, established as a hit, the emergency is over, the production plan is made—and with success has come an extra dimension. "Writers now are interested in doing scripts; actors and agents want to get involved with the show," Wagner said.

Wagner, who has been a successful film actor for more than 20 years, is committed to the series under the usual five year contract. He is happy with the prospect although it means giving up some film assignments.

Producer Leslie Stevens of "The Name of the Game" needed a pretty girl for a small part Thursday when one of the tourist trains stopped by the set on the Universal lot. He spotted a young brunette among the tourists and asked her if she belonged to the actors' or the extras' union.

Receiving an affirmative nod, he hired her on the spot.

It would be nice to report that this was an updated version of the old Lana Turner—soda fountain discovery legend, but the outcome turned out to be a disappointing anticlimax.

Judy Jordan of Miami, Fla., the pretty girl, has already been discovered. For the past few seasons she has been one of Jackie Gleason's Glee Girls—the one, in fact, who each week says "...and away we go."

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MRS. ALBERT WEISENBERGER

Miss Barbara Giles McGovern became the bride of Albert Grow Weisenberger at 8 o'clock Saturday in the Manhattan Presbyterian Church in El Paso, Texas. Rev. John Justus read the vows uniting the daughter of Mr. Hugh James McGovern and the late Barbara Bassett McGovern, 516 Woodland Way, El Paso, Texas and the son of Judge and Mrs. Royce Weisenberger of Hope.

The church was beautifully decorated with altar-garlands of greens with floor candelabras having white capers. Four totemary trees contained pink mums and roses. The bride's aisle was lined with white cloth. Pews were decorated with pink roses and greenery.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. J. W. Montgomery, organist, and Freeman Harris, who sang Because and the Lord's Prayer. Candles were lighted by Charles Hammond of El Paso and Hal Daugherty of Dallas.

Mr. McGovern gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of Candelite English net heavily embroidered with alencon lace. The "molded" bodice was fashioned with a wedding ring neckline and sleeves to the elbow. The A-line skirt fell from an empire waist to carpet length. The edge of the sleeves and the skirt were scalloped with alencon lace. A sweeping cathedral train of peau de sole extended from a lace yoke at the back of the dress. The veil was of imported silk illusion in the candelite color. It extended the length of the train from a coil of alencon lace and seed pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade of butterfly orchids and stephanotis with a detachable corsage.

Mrs. David Turner was the bride's matron of honor. Mrs. John Searls, Mrs. William Armstrong II, Miss Elizabeth Hammond, Miss Flory Daugherty, and Miss Harriett Baird were bridesmaids.

All the bride's attendants were identically dressed in floor length dresses of pink rose crepe. Elbow length sleeves and a round neckline were accented with ruffles of the same material. A small bow with streamers, also of pink crepe, was the back accent of the dress.

Their headresses were bandeaux of pink crepe finished with a bow and four layers of matching pink silk illusion. Their bouquets, of colonial style, were of white butterfly roses with pink centers of sweetheart roses with velvet ribbon.

Royce Weisenberger, Jr. of Texarkana served his brother as best man. Ushers were Charles Holm, Houston, Bruce Weller and George Woods, Beaumont, Texas, Robert Mitchell, Hope and John Searls, El Paso.

Mrs. Royce Weisenberger, mother of the groom was attired in a turquoise blue chiffon floor-length empire gown with a beaded top.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The bride's cake was accented with white roses and sweetheart roses with green house smilax and white satin ribbon. Two wine coolers filled with white mums and roses were on the refreshment table. Five branch candelabras with a memory candle was centered on the guest book table. Those serving were Mrs. John Spanagel, Mrs. Royce Weisenberger, Jr., Mrs. Charles Reed, Miss Charlotte Hays, and Miss Martha Lee Gale.

For her wedding trip to Jamaica, the bride chose a white linen dress and coat with green and pink linen waist.

The couple will reside at Williamsburg Manor, 5818 East University No. 215, Dallas.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Texas Christian University. He is presently enrolled in Southern Methodist University Law School.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Lynn and Virginia of Little Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Huckabee, and Darwin of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed, Chris, Mitchell and Barbara of Fort Worth.

3 Points Separate Alou, Rose

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The duel for the batting lead between Matty Alou and Pete Rose seems to be the last remnant of competition for a National League top position now that St. Louis has turned back the late challenge of the Chicago Cubs.

Only three points separate Alou and Rose today while the first-place Cardinals are 14 games in front of the runnerup Cubs.

Alou, 1966 NL batting king, cracked two hits in four tries Thursday night as the Pittsburgh Pirates blanked San Francisco 2-0 behind Steve Blass' four-hitter. The Cards walloped the Cubs 8-0 and Houston edged Philadelphia 3-2 in the only other National League games.

There was more action in the American League where Boston blanked Chicago 3-0, Baltimore split a doubleheader with Minnesota, winning the opener 4-3 and losing the nightcap, 2-1. Oakland downed the New York Yankees 4-3, and California beat Washington 3-1.

Alou's safeties raised his average to .330. Rose leads with .333 while another Cincinnati Red, Alex Johnson is third at .321.

San Francisco's Willie McCovey has a commanding lead in homers and runs batted in with 30 and 77, respectively, while Juan Marichal, another Giant, is a solid front-runner in most pitching victories with 21.

Alou triggered a two-run pirate first inning that carried Blass to his 10th victory against five defeats. Matty singled and later scored on Donn Clemons' one-bagger. The second run came home when third baseman Jim Hart erred on Manny Mota's grounder.

Blass was in trouble only in the third inning when Jay Alou, Matty's brother, singled and moved to second on Hal Lanier's single. However, Blass got losing pitcher Bob Bolin, 6-4, on a pop foul and fanned Bobby Bonds and Ron Hunt. The setback ended the Giants' five-game winning streak.

Mike Shannon and Nelson Briles starred for the Cardinals. Shannon belted the first grand slam homer of his career and drove in another run with a single. Briles pitched a seven-hitter in recording his 16th triumph against seven losses.

Ken Holtzman, 8-9, was knocked out of the box in St. Louis' four-run first. John Edwards' two-run double capped the rally. Shannon's bases-filled homer greeted Bill Stoneman in the second. Stoneman relieved Jack Lamabe after Briles' single and two walks.

The four-game series in Chicago's Wrigley Field drew a total of 121,750 spectators.

Doug Rader's eighth inning run-scoring double broke a tie and gave the Astros their victory over the Phillies. Houston trailed 2-0 in the sixth, but Jim Wynn's 16th homer tied it.

The Phils had taken a 1-0 lead in the opening on Tony Taylor's double, an infield out and John Briggs' double. They added their second run in the fourth on singles by Briggs and Richie Allen, a walk to Tony Gonzalez and Cookie Rojas' sacrifice fly.

Rojas had a chance to win the game for Philadelphia in the ninth. However, reliever Danny Coombs fanned him with runners on second and third and two out. Dave Giusti, 7-12, was the winner. Dick Farrell, 3-5, working in relief of Woody Fryman, was the loser.

Over two-thirds of the human body is water.

Dee's Number to Be Retired

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Patriots of the American Football League plan to retire Bob Dee's No. 89.

The Patriots announced that the defensive end from Holy Cross who retired as a player recently will be honored before a home game this season.

Gulf Between PGA, Golfers Widens

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The chasm between the Professional Golfers Association and the touring players, who have set up a rival organization, deepened today.

Max Elbin, president of the PGA, said he would ask the special meeting of the PGA Executive Committee at Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. today for permission to poll each player and "ask him whether he is a PGA member of a member of the other group."

"If he wants to join the other group," Elbin said. "Then I would pull his card immediately."

Such an action would mean that the player would be suspended and ineligible to compete in further tournaments such as the $100,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic next week at the Whitemarsh Country Club.

Sam Gates, attorney for the rebel players who have formed a new organization called the International Professional Golfers Association, termed the threat of a poll "coercion" and "dictatorial."

"I am advising the players, if this move is taken, not to respond to such a poll," Gates continued. "The players cannot be intimidated by this kind of dictatorial action."

Elbin made his comment in Washington before leaving for Florida. Gates spoke at Harrison, N.Y. where most of the touring pros are competing in the $250,000 Westchester Classic.

In Minneapolis, meanwhile, Angus Mairs, of St. Paul, president of the International Golf Sponsors Association, urged tourney sponsors to do nothing until his organization meets in Houston, Sept. 5-6.

Said Mairs: "My position is that if the sponsors would hold off and act collectively we could bring the two groups together under conditions which would be satisfactory to both. I think it's a matter of personalities as much as anything else."

Gates, however, has declared that "it is too late for further negotiations."

"We have to know who is on our side," Elbin said in explaining his recommendation to the PGA Executive Committee for a poll of the players.

"I really cannot believe the PGA Executive Committee would attempt to take such action," Gates said. "That would be the worst kind of coercion I know, an attempt to deprive the players of an opportunity to make a living in order to force PGA control."

The players, who wanted a bigger say in the conduct of the yearly $5.6 million tour, announced Tuesday that they were breaking with the PGA, starting next year. They agreed to honor all existing contracts.

Twin Star Runs Orioles Out of Game

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rod Carew might be the American League's top hitter, but to the Baltimore Orioles he looks more like the league's leading runner—bad knee and all.

Minnesota's All-Star second baseman ran the Orioles out of a ball game Thursday night and left them standing still in their chase after league-leading Detroit, which was idle.

Carew, who left the first game with a sore left knee after Baltimore scored three fifth-inning runs for a 4-3 victory, entered the second contest of a twilight doubleheader as a pinch hitter for Bob Allison in the eighth inning.

The score was tied 1-1 and hits by Rich Reese and Tony Oliva put runners on first and third with one out. Carew grounded to shortstop Mark Belanger, whose throw to second baseman Dave Johnson forced Oliva. But Carew, shaking off his leg miseries, barely beat the return throw to first base as Reese scored the winning run for a 2-1 triumph and a split.

In the only other games, Boston blanked the Chicago White Sox 3-0, California beat Washington 3-1 and Oakland slipped by the New York Yankees 4-3.

In the National League, St. Louis stomped the Chicago Cubs 8-0, Pittsburgh nipped San Francisco 2-0 and Houston downed Philadelphia 3-2 in the only games.

Carew, hitting .305, helped the Twins to a 3-0 lead in the first game against Jim Hardin when he singled in the first of three runs in the opening inning. Frank Quilici later doubled in the other two.

After that burst, the Twins and Carew faded. While Hardin, 15-8, held them scoreless the rest of the way and completed a six-hitter, the Orioles jumped on Dean Chance, 11-11.

Brooks Robinson started the comeback with a disputed home run, his 14th, in the second inning. The ball appeared to hit the left field wall but Baltimore Manager Earl Weaver protested that a fan had pushed it back onto the field and the umpires upheld his claim.

Then Larry Haney slugged his first homer to open the fifth and a hit by Don Buford, a double by Belanger and Curt Blefary's sacrifice fly followed. Third baseman Quilici let the throw from the outfield get away after Blefary's fly and the decisive run scored.

Carew pulled up lame two innings later, and rested his knee until the eighth of the nightcap when he turned on the speed.

Jim McGlothlin, 8-10, stopped the Senators on four hits in California's victory. After he gave up an unearned run in the first on two hits, an error and a double play, Tom Satriano put the Angels ahead with a two-run single in the second against loser Frank Bertina, 4-12.

Oakland jumped on Mel Stottlemyre, 15-10, for four runs in the fifth inning as Jim Pagliaro hit a solo homer and Reggie Jackson a two-run shot, his 22nd. But the Yankees came back in the sixth on Mickey Mantle's 15th homer with two on, and only clutch relief pitching by Jack Aker and Lew Krausse held them off.

Aker stopped the Yankees with a man on second and one out in the seventh, and Krausse worked out of a bases loaded, none-out jam in the eighth and a man-on-second, one-out threat in the ninth.

Gary Bell, 10-8, worked out of jams in the first and second inning and then retired 19 consecutive hitters en route to a four-hitter in Boston's triumph. Carl Yastrzemski singled in two fifth-inning runs and Ken Harrelson drove in his 99th run with a hit in the seventh for the needed support.

offered in the Park Lanes Professional Women's Tournament. The winner will get $975. The second place finisher earns $735 and the third place finisher gets $615. The top 18 finishers will receive a portion of the prize money.

Dotty Fothergill of North Attleboro, Mass., the top money winner on the tour, and Robbie Frey of Los Angeles, the second-leading money winner, are scheduled to compete. The Arkansas pros are Virginia Hendricks of Springdale, Ella Mae Ledford of Fort Smith, Kate Birmingham of Texarkana and Pat Gorman of Little Rock.

The pros will each bowl 10 games Saturday and five more games Sunday. The field will be reduced to the top 24, and after nine more games, to the top five.

Bobcats Are Slowed by Weather

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

After intermittent rains which have made the ground wet and slippery, the Hope Bobcats proceeded into their third day of preseason conditioning workouts today hoping for better weather.

As any coach can tell you, time is precious when you're trying to ready a team for the long season, but delays can quickly put a damper into prearranged plans.

From the looks of this year's squad in the early going, it appears that its enthusiasm and pride could cause great changes from past marks of 4-7, 5-6, and 2-8-1. One advantage for the Cats will be the fact that from past records they will not be regarded highly.

That's the way everyone felt about the Fairview Cardinals last year, especially after lowly Smackover upended the Redbirds 14-13 early. But Cardinal Head Coach George Branch played his cards right, even with hovering problems of size and depth. Fairview just kept on winning (Hope gave them a close shave at home, though, before the Cards won 27-19) and won right through to the finish with the 7-6 conquest of Malvern which meant an 11-1 scoresheet and the 4-AA championship.

Now in '68 Fairview doesn't appear to be strong, but that winning spirit and pride will make the Cardinals a solid contender in 4-AA's Western Division, sure as not.

Back to the Bobcats, the coaches, before this morning's practice began the long issuance of practice uniforms and equipment toward Tuesday's workout in full pads.

Head Coach Ronnie Higgins said of yesterday's work that, "it was hot and it got a little sloppy after the drills took a good while to cover."

Of course, the boys are not in peak condition yet, so this is understandable. Higgins also stated that the team's number had upped to 42 boys.

There were a few small injuries yesterday. Stan James, sophomore back, received a cracked finger in ball-handling drills, and in a head-on collision both Sid Waller and Dillon Wheelington were knocked cold. Waller did not miss this morning's workout, but Dillon sat one out to get better recovered.

A reminder to all Bobkittens that your preseason workouts start next Monday at 1:00 p.m. at Hammon's Stadium with Coach Gaylord Solomon.

Forward Pass Favored at Saratoga

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The canoe in the infield lake at Saratoga is expected to be painted in the devil's red of Calumet Farm Saturday. But the painter better have some other colors ready.

The owner of the winner of the Travers Stakes traditionally has his or her racing colors painted on the canoe, and Forward Pass is favored to put the devil's red over the red and white polka dots of Mrs. Edith W. Bancroft, who owns last year's winner, Damascus.

But no colt can be considered a shoo-in a race that has such good 3-year-olds as Robert J. Kleberg's Out of the Way, Capt. Harry Guggenheim's Captain's Gig and W. R. Hawm's Poleax.

A field of 10 to 13 is in prospect for the 99th running of the $75,000-added Travers at 1 1/4 miles.

A probable field of nine fillies and mares will be after the winner's share of the $50,000-added Arlington Matron Handicap over 1 1/4 miles on the grass at Arlington Park.

Among the expected starters are Patrick Madden's Pink Piggyon, top weighted at 125; Hap-py Hill Farms' Ludham, 122, and Harbor View Farm's Wing-ing Mood, 122.

Another turf race will be the $25,000-added, one-mile Philadelphia Handicap at Atlantic City. Twelve starters are expected, with Fourth Estate Stable's War Censor getting the highest weight of 117. Others include Robert Lehman's Fil-To, 117; Bwamazon Farm's Quite an Accent, 117, and Mrs. J. R. H. Thoron's Ginger, 112, 116.

Also on Saturday's national program are the $20,000-added, 1 1/4-mile Rainbow Handicap at Rockingham Park and the $15,000-added, six-furlong Bing Crosby Handicap at Del Mar.

It is about 35 degrees colder at the South Pole than at the North Pole.

ALL-AMERICAN Leroy Keyes of Purdue is a top candidate for this season's Heisman Trophy and his Bolle-maker teammates are favored to win the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl.

Youngster Leading Rich Golf Classic

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — Bob Murphy is a cocky, confident young man, built along the lines of a miniature Jack Nicklaus, who holds a one-stroke lead going into today's second round of the $250,000 Westchester Classic Golf Tournament.

"Cocky?" He repeated the question after firing a blistering, eight-under-par 64 in Thursday's opening round over the sun-splashed Westchester Country Club course, a 6,648 yards, par 72 layout.

"I guess you could call it that. God gave me a good body, a good swing and a good mind. I think I can do things with them. If that's cocky, then I'm cocky."

Veteran Dan Sikes who finished second in last year's inaugural of this richest of the pro tournaments, had a 65 for second place. A former Masters champion Art Wall, Jr., had a 66 and defending champion Jack Nicklaus 67.

Murphy, 25, a former amateur and national collegiate champion, is in his rookie year as a pro. He didn't take up golf until he was 18, and because of a football injury. He had hoped to make a career for himself as a baseball pitcher.

So far this season, he's made $23,828 on the tour.

His blistering assault which included an eagle, when he chipped in from 25 yards out, seven birdies and one bogey—on the 13th when he was in the deep rough twice—was the biggest battering given the course as far took a terrible beating.

Sikes had nine birdies—half his holes—in his round, on putts ranging from 6 to 30 feet. He had bogeys on Nos. 2 and 3, each time in a trap.

Following Nicklaus at four under par 68 was a group of six, including Gardner Dickinson, head of the players group now locked in a bitter dispute with the PGA; Bobby Nichols, Dudley Wysong, Bob Stanton of Australia, lefty Bob Charles of New Zealand, and Australia's Bruce Crampton.

There were 13 at 69—three under-par—including Masters champ Bob Goaly and U.S. Open Champion Lee Trevino, each of whom had to rally to make it.

Arnold Palmer had a 71, but was well back in the pack as 56 in the field bettered par and 22 more matched it.

The field will be cut to the low 70 and ties after today's round—and it's barely possible that it may take par to do it.

Inman Wins the Opening Round

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — Joe Inman, of Greensboro, N.C., took the first round lead in the Eastern Amateur Golf Tournament Thursday with a three-under-par 67.

Weekend Filled With Pro Games

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Washington Redskins will try to ride out a long-standing jinx against the Baltimore Colts, tonight behind Harry Theofilides, a graduate of the Redskins' taxi squad.

The contest between the two National Football League clubs touches off a four-day 12-game exhibition scheduled involving NFL and American Football League teams. The nationally televised NFL game between Chicago and Green Bay at Milwaukee, Wis., climaxes the action Monday night.

Five of the games will be inter-league affairs. The AFL leads the NFL 4-2 this exhibition season.

This will be the Redskins only chance this year to end the jinx, which has seen them lose 10, straight to the Colts. The two clubs do not meet in the regular season.

But Washington coach Otto Graham is more concerned with how his quarterbacks look than with winning. So is Colt Coach Don Shula.

Theofilides, the Wyandover, Pa., grad who has been on the taxi squad the last two years, earned the starting role by leading the Redskins to a 16-14 victory over Atlanta last weekend.

Graham also plans to use veteran Jim Minkowski and rookie Gary Beban, the Heisman Trophy winner from UCLA while No. 1 quarterback Sonny Jurgensen continues to recuperate from an operation on his right elbow last May 18.

Shula says the great Johnny Unitas will quarterback the Colts for the first half and Terry Southall will be at the controls the second half.

Southall, the former Baylor star who was on the Colts' taxi squad last season, got his shot in the absence of backup quarterback Jim Ward. Ward was put on the waived-injury list Thursday because of a knee injury. He cannot be reactivated until Sept. 11, four days before the Colts open their regular season against San Francisco.

Saturday night's scheduled pits Dallas, NFL, at Los Angeles, NFL; St. Louis, NFL, at Kansas City, AFL; Minnesota, NFL, at Denver, AFL; Philadelphia, NFL, at Miami, AFL; Pittsburgh, NFL, at San Diego, AFL; Boston, AFL, vs. New York Jets, AFL, at Richmond, Va.; Buffalo, AFL, at Cincinnati, AFL, and Atlanta, NFL, vs. New York Giants, NFL, at Nashville, Tenn.; Cleveland, NFL, at San Francisco, NFL, and New Orleans, NFL, at Houston, AFL Sunday.

In other developments, New York Jets quarterback Joe Namath was given a cortisone shot in his troublesome left knee and ruled out of the game against Boston.

Minnesota traded punter Bob Walden to Pittsburgh and sent guard John Pentecost and running back Jim Overman to Atlanta of the NFL, all for draft choices.

The New York Giants obtained quarterback Gary Wood on waivers from New Orleans, acquired defensive tackle Sam Silas from St. Louis for a future draft pick and dropped defensive tackle Don Davis and guard Charles Glenn. The Giants also signed punter Tommy Luncford, recently released by Dallas.

teams from the Caribbean, Mexico and Ecuador.

Dell decided on the quick-reacting Ashe, 25-year-old Army Lieutenant, earlier in the week but waited until just before Thursday's draw to pick Graebner over Charlie Pasarell.

Graebner, recent winner of the National Clay Courts crown, last month defeated Santana in the third round at Wimbledon.

The only mild surprise was the choice by Spain's veteran captain, Jaime Bartrol, of Gishbert over Manuel Orantes, 19-year-old southpaw, to handle the single along with Santana.

Figures Rams Goal to Be About Same

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Coach George Allen of the Los Angeles Rams hasn't raised his goals a lot higher this season. "You can't improve much on near perfection," commented the head man of the Rams heading into his third season. Los Angeles won the Coastal Division of the National Football League with an 11-2 record, losing to San Francisco, before falling to Green Bay in the NFL championship playoffs. The Rams come back with a more experienced stand-pat club. Why not?

Los Angeles led the NFL in fewest points allowed—196—and led the league in points scored with 398.

"Where we improved the most was on third down short yardage situations," said the coach. "In 1966 were successful on only about 50 percent. Last year we were up to about 75 percent."

A big reason was the rushing of Les Josephson. He won a regular spot during the pre-season and then led the Rams rushers with 800 yards in the regular season. In addition, he grabbed 37 passes.

Allen designated Roman Gabriel as his quarterback two seasons ago and the big fellow has shown consistent improvement. In 1967 he hit 196 of 371 attempts for 2,779 yards and 25 touchdowns.

Fullback Dick Bass again is being held out of the pre-season games to avoid possible injury but will be set for the regular season. Ex-49er Bernie Casey caught eight touchdowns passes last season, his first as a Ram, and nailed down the starting assignment.

Split end Jack Snow and defensive end David "Deacon" Jones held out in bids for more money this fall, but both are now in the fold.

Rosey Grier has retired but the 1967 edition of the "Fearless Foursome" returns.

Grier was hurt in the pre-season of 1967 and Allen immediately traded to get Roger Brown to fill in with Jones, Merlin Olsen and Lamar Lundy for the defensive front four.

A trade which sent reserve quarterback Bill Manton to Detroit brought the Rams Pat Studdstill, available at flanker or Martin (9-4), L — Burke (8-9), split end as well as doing the punting. Tommy Watkins returning kicks and Milt Plum used in "footprinting."

backing up Gabriel. The Rams possess perhaps the most underrated tight end in Bill Truax and a tough interior offensive line with Joe Corallo, Tom Mack, Ken Iman, Joe Schibelli, and Charlie Cowan.

Defensive, the linebackers include Doug Woodlief, Myron Pottlos and Tony Gullory with Irv Cross, Chuck Lamson, Ed Meador, Casey Williams and Willie Daniel among the veteran secondary defenders.

Allen looks for help from defensive lineman Gregg Schumacher and offensive back Willie Ellison, in their second NFL season.

As in the immediate past, it will be tough for a rookie to make the club.

Travelers Increase Their Lead

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers increased their lead over Shreveport to four games in the Eastern Division of the Texas League Thursday night as Andy Martin blanked San Antonio 4-0 on six hits and the Braves split a doubleheader with Albuquerque.

Martin, a lefthander, gave up two singles with two out in the first inning and then faced the minimum number of batters until the seventh.

Arkansas scored in the third inning on a single by Quilque Rivera, a single by Boots Day and an error. John Slinn and Mike Christino singled in the fourth and Slinn scored on an infield out.

Leron Lee's sacrifice fly scored Billy Wolff, who had tripled, in the sixth. The Travels added their final run in the ninth on two singles and a walk.

Shreveport beat Albuquerque 5-4 in the opener but dropped the second game 3-0.

Ron Bryant recorded his fifth shutout of the season as Amarillo defeated Memphis 7-0 to complete a sweep of a doubleheader. The Giants, who had dropped four straight, blasted Memphis 8-6 in the opener, scoring three runs in both the third and fifth innings.

Dallas-Fort Worth edged El Paso 2-1 in another Texas League action.

Arkansas 001 101 001—4 8 1
S. Antonio 000 000—0 6 3

Martin, Cosman (9) and Riquelme (7) were the winning pitchers. Martin (9-4), L — Burke (8-9), split end as well as doing the punting. Tommy Watkins returning kicks and Milt Plum used in "footprinting."

Wants More Effort to Stop Smoking

By JACK MILLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A national task force today recommended stepped-up federal and private efforts to combat use of cigarettes and "stem the rising tide of early deaths and disabilities associated with smoking."

The report was immediately attacked by the Tobacco Institute as a "shockingly intemperate defamation of an industry which has led the way in medical research to seek answers in the cigarette controversy."

Among the recommendations of the task force report to the U.S. Surgeon General:

—Tighter restrictions on cigarette advertising and promotion.

—Better instruction in schools to influence youngsters to refrain from smoking.

—Greater antismoking efforts by doctors and other health professionals.

—Use of group approaches to prevent or reduce smoking.

—More insurance plans which give reduced rates to nonsmokers.

—Development and promotion of safer cigarettes.

The task force, which was appointed in 1967, said it is encouraged with early results of anti-smoking efforts.

It noted that cigarette consumption per capita declined sharply after the surgeon general's 1964 report on smoking and health, that it rose again in 1965 and 1966 and again is declining.

But the task force said "The problem remains, still, bigger than the efforts to combat it. Cigarette smoking is one of the foremost preventable causes of death in the United States as well as in other parts of the world."

On cigarette advertising the task force said it "is unable to see how, in the long run, a product involving the health hazards of cigarettes can continue to be advertised."

In the meantime, the group said, "higher standards for cigarette advertising should be demanded." It called on the administration to press for legislation to require that tar and nicotine contents be listed on cigarette packages and in advertising. And the task force urged a stronger warning about the health hazards on cigarettes, to be placed in advertising as well as on cigarette packages.

The task force also said such advertising should not be allowed to reach large numbers of children and young people and shouldn't equate smoking with social success or sex appeal.

The group criticized what it called "the inability or unwillingness of the cigarette industry to face up to the health hazards of cigarette smoking or even to admit they exist."

It said "large parts of the industry" have been trying to discredit the 1964 report and its 1967 followup, concluding that "this well-financed and professionally conducted program, when addressed to the consumer, is encouraging death and disease."

In education, the task force urged the Department of Health, Education and Welfare to support training of teachers and curricula for improving school instruction on hazards of smoking. It said this should be taught through classes in science, social studies, health and physical education and others.

Health professionals were urged to set examples by not smoking, and by posting "No Smoking" signs in waiting rooms and by removing ashtrays.

Today's hand shows a 13 IMP gain for the Dallas Orange Team in its match against the California All-Stars. The bidding in the box is that of the Orange Team.

Bobby Wolff's two-club opening was an artificial forcing bid. The fact that he also had an old-fashioned Culbertson two-club opening is purely coincidental.

The one weakness of this artificial two-club opening is that you can't handle regular club bids too well. North's two-diamond response was a sort of a catch-all bid. It would be made with a bust; it might be made with a pretty good hand. In any event, it had nothing to do with diamonds.

This left Bobby with a tough choice. Should he rebid clubs? Should he bid two no-trump with nothing in diamonds? He did bid two no-trump, which turned out to be the winning decision since, paradoxically, it kept him out of no-trump as his final contract.

North's three-club bid also had nothing to do with clubs. It was a Stayman bid to ask South if he had a four-card major. Bobby obliged by bidding three spades and North took him to game.

There was no trouble making five odd. Bobby won the club lead, ruffed a club in dummy, entered his hand with a heart, ruffed another club, drew trumps and conceded the last two tricks.

The California South also opened two clubs but chose to rebid to three clubs after the artificial two-diamond response.

North could find nothing better to bid than three no-trump. If East had led his fourth club, North would have let it ride to his jack and made three no-trump but East opened a heart. After this lead North could do no more than to take his eight top tricks and go one down.

AFL WEST: Cincinnati Bengals

PROSPECTUS—"This is the way we wanted it," says Paul Brown, with just a tinge of bitterness, about the cost-offs unloaded on him in the guise of expansion. Fully expects at least one-quarter of his squad to turn over when the final cutdown lists are made up throughout league. "There's room for improvement in almost every department," he sums up. Typical expansion club. PREDICTION—Fifth in West.

Paul Brown

OFFENSE

PASSING—No one's taken over with strong hand, but John Stofa gets it almost by default on past experience. Rookie Dewey Warren is chief threat because operation might deck Gary Davis for year. Rating—C.

RECEIVING—Cast is sure to change. There's no right end on hand, so Bob Trumphy, a skinny rookie, has to shift over. Touted Warren McPea of Houston is only running second string until he gets hang of job. Rod Sherman, ex-Raider, is closest thing to an experienced hand. Rating—C.

RUNNING—Some lack of proven quality pertains here, too, especially since Bobby Burnett's still plagued by old Buffalo injuries. Right now, Brown's going with first-year man Paul Robinson. Tom Smiley, backed up by Estes Banks, a prospect from Oakland. Rating—C.

LINE—Such familiar names as Ernie Wright (San Diego), Pat Matson (Denver), Al Reynolds (KC) provide semblance of stability. Bengals will intersperse them with youngsters like Dave Middendorf, Howard Fest and top draftee Bob Johnson at center, and hope the quarterbacks don't get killed. Rating—B.

LINEBACKING—On paper, you'd say it looked pretty good, with Sherrill Hendrick to play the middle, flanked by Don Brabham and Frank Byrum on the corners. At one time or another, they've been among the class of the league. But their current serviceability remains doubtful, and Bengals can't muster any experience behind them. Rating—B.

SECONDARY—Bobby Huot, a regular at Kansas City, is definitely tagged for one safety, and Charley King, always a hopeful at Buffalo, should qualify for a corner job. Jess Phillips, the parolee from Michigan State, could fit in, too, though he'll be tried first on offense to get feel of football again. Otherwise, there's a flock of rookies scrambling for the open jobs. Rating—C.

KICKING—Despite poor debut in exhibition season, Dale Livingston has promise as a punter. They won't know about any place-kickers until they get close enough to score. Rating—C.

Little League World Series Play Starts

By LARRY MARGASAK
Associated Press Sports Writer
WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — While major league experts argue over baseball's lack of hitting, slump at the turnstiles and nonexistent pennant races this year, enthusiasm is at its traditional high in this Little League headquarters city which hosts its 22nd World Series beginning Tuesday.

Five of the eight berths in the series, which has become the highest dream of thousands of youngsters, will be filled in regional playoffs Saturday. The competition takes place in the North, South, East and West United States and Canada.

Teams from Chindangera, Nicaragua; Wakayama, Japan, and a U.S. Air Force team from Wiesbaden, Germany already have won regional playoffs, and will complete the series field.

This year's series will be played in a new, $300,000 stadium, which will be dedicated before the championship game Aug. 24. The 4,500 seat structure will replace temporary bleachers that have been used the past 10 years. Additional fans can be seated on a hillside surrounding the stadium, which is in a natural ravine.

SHORT RIBS

CHEER ME UP, PLEASE—THE QUEEN HAS BEEN LISTING MY FAULTS FOR ME IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER.

ARE YOU KIDDING?

of circulation in the inner ear appear to be important factors. A wide variety of drugs has been used to treat this disease, including diuretics, antihistamines, nicotinic acid, vitamin B-12, betahistine hydrochloride (Serc) and streptomycin. Limitation of the fluid and salt intake is recommended because waterlogging of the inner ear is believed to be the underlying mechanism causing the symptoms. In the treatment of patients with severe dizziness, surgical destruction of the inner ear may be necessary.

Q—Since last September I have been having dizziness and nausea. My doctor says my left ear is causing the trouble. Is there any cure for this?

A—You probably have Meniere's disease. For the treatment see the previous answer.

Q—Over a year ago I developed chronic labyrinthitis. My doctor prescribed nicotinic acid, a tranquilizer, antibiotics and a capsule for stomach spasms. Can all these drugs be taken safely?

A—Not all of them were given for your labyrinthitis, a condition closely related to Meniere's disease. They can be taken safely if your doctor adjusts the dosage to your individual needs as judged by your progress in controlling your symptoms.

Q—My doctor says I have labyrinthitis. He is giving me Antivert but he said the disease would eventually go away. How long should this take?

A—If the inflammation in your inner ear (labyrinthitis) is an acute process associated with a virus infection, it could clear up within two or three weeks. But if it is a chronic condition due to an allergy or hardening of the arteries, it will not clear up spontaneously.

Q—Our doctor says my husband has some trouble with his heart valve and advises transplanting a valve. How successful is this operation?

A—Plastic valves to replace diseased heart valves have proved very successful.

Spaghetti Show Planned at Tonitown

TONITOWN, Ark. (AP) — The Ozark Italians in this small village of 209 population, near Springdale, gather today to revive the magic of Italian spaghetti-making.

The reason for the occasion is the 70th Tontitown Grape Festival which runs through Saturday.

For the past few weeks, eom-en have been making spaghetti noodles for the festival. They knead huge tubs of dough, crank it through a roller, cut it into thin strips and hang it on wooden racks to dry.

Italian sauce is made by the gallons to serve the thousands who come to Tontitown for the annual event.

And, of course, there will be plenty of wine from the Tontitown vineyards.

Dances are held each night following a spaghetti dinner.

Zita Mae Mantegani has been named Queen Concordia 70th to reign over the festival, whose chairman is Fred Taldo.

DONKEYS PAY PRICE

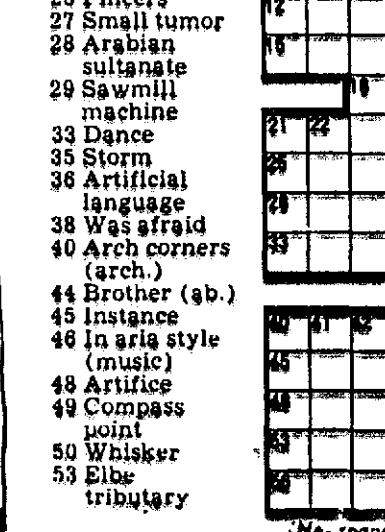

WINDHOEK, South West Africa (AP) — A distraught African widow, Mrs. Maria Keib, destroyed a pair of donkeys and a donkey cart because she was convinced they brought death to her family.

Her husband, Benjamin, apparently had trouble with the donkeys and fell from the cart. Blood stains were later found on the donkeys' hooves. Benjamin recovered sufficiently to walk along the railway line in search of help and was knocked down and killed by a train.

A Closer Walk With God Will Lead You Right Straight to Church

our own BARS

... sure they are! How pathetic to find both good and bad people imprisoned. Some are guilty. Some are innocent. Remember John Bunyan in jail? He gave us Pilgrim's Progress while behind bars. But there is another prison and no error is made in determining it's inmates. It is the prison of the soul, and everyone of us constructs his own cell. The cells of the spiritual prison are intolerance, self-centeredness, hatred, malice and falsehood. The law man will put you in a man-made jail if you break the rules, but you imprison yourself behind bars wrought by your own hands if you allow bad habits to dominate your life. The Bible plainly tells us of an Emancipator of souls, who will bring us to freedom and wholesome living if we dedicate ourselves to our highest potentialities. Why not begin this dedication in a visit to His Church.

Unrest at Little Rock Evident

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Little Rock has been without racial disturbances since Monday night but the rumblings of racial unrest are still present.

Officials of Little Rock and North Little Rock were given a list of 11 requests Thursday by Negroes prior to facing about 100 persons, mostly Negroes, in a pointed question and answer session.

Little Rock Mayor Martin Borchert and North Little Rock Mayor William F. Laman were present at the meeting, which was called by William Walker, director of the Pulaski County Economic Opportunity Agency. Bobby Brown, president of the Little Rock Chapter of Black United Youth, took over the meeting soon after the formalities were out of the way.

Brown noted that the first of the 11 recommendations called for the appointment of a Negro as assistant city manager.

Borchert said the City Manager Board was willing to discuss the idea.

Laman said the problem did not affect North Little Rock because it did not have a city manager government. "There is not problem of communication in our city among those who really want to communicate," he said.

Laman said he would deal with any specific problems after one person said Negroes had had problems in North Little Rock for years.

Laman also urged Negroes to seek city jobs, particularly on the Police Department.

Several persons laughed when Borchert said his administration was studying recommendations submitted by Negroes in April.

"When are you going to get some of these things out of advisement and into reality," asked The Rev. Cecil Cone. "I hear the same things — the city fathers are trying to rock us to sleep, to try to calm us down until the next crisis happens."

Shortly after Rev. Cone's statement, a number of Negro youths took control of the floor. "You keep on checking over these things," one said to Borchert. "Well, you better keep on checking over them because eventually you ain't going to have nobody to check over." The situation quieted down after several minutes and Little Rock Police Chief R. E.

Brians was questioned about the shooting of a Negro youngster Friday night during a memorial service for a Negro who died at the Pulaski County Penal Farm.

Brians said the Justice Department was investigating the shooting of the youngster, but he declined to reveal the results of the investigation.

In another development, the Presbyterian Ministers Association of Greater Little Rock praised the leaders of BUY for moving to stop disturbances following the march Friday night. The association also defended the calling of the memorial service and march.

Little Rock Police and Brians also came in for praise for what the association called "considerable restraint" during the memorial service.

The association's statement said BUY's role in the disturbances had been "misunderstood."

"Without such leadership from responsible black persons the disturbances might have turned into a full-blown riot," the association said.

It was also announced Thursday that the national guardsmen who had patrolled the city with police from Friday until Tuesday had been withdrawn to Camp Robinson.

Maj. Gen. Charles Wilson, the state adjutant general, said the guardsmen were "on standby."

Two Arkansans Among Leaders

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — Two professional golfers from Arkansas, R. H. Sikes of Springdale and Dick Crawford of Bella Vista, were among the leaders Thursday after the first round of the $250,000 Westchester Classic Golf Tournament.

Both toured the par 72 layout in 71. Sikes had nines of 35-36 and Crawford shot 34-37. Miller Barber of Texarkana had 38-35 for a 1-over-par 73.

Bob Murphy fired a 64 to take the first round lead.

School Boys to Don Pads

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — High school football hopefuls in Arkansas can practice in pads for the first time Tuesday, Aug. 20, contrary to earlier reports.

Johnnie Burnett, head of the Arkansas Athletic Association, made the statement Thursday. He said it had been erroneously reported that athletes could begin wearing pads Monday, Aug. 19.

Norman Taylor, one of the contestants in the "BIG WATER-MELON" Contest, is shown in his patch on the Rocky Mound Road with some of his melons. According to Mr. Taylor the big melons will be reaching their peak and most of them will be ready to harvest within the next few days. Mr. Taylor is one of 12 growers that will be competing for the $300.00 prize for the largest one grown this year. Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania became independent states as a result of World War I and lost such status as a result of World War II.

LBJ Pleased Over Discount Rate Cutback

By TOM STEWART

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Reserve Board describes its vote for a slight cutback in the discount rate as primarily technical. But the action offers hope this key economic indicator has begun its long slide back to normal.

"I am pleased," said President Johnson Thursday after the Fed's board of governors acted. "It should help to assure the availability of funds to finance a needed increase in the pace of homebuilding."

The discount rate is the rate of interest Federal Reserve banks charge for loans to their member banks. Since they'll be getting money more cheaply, these banks can be expected to make some downward revisions of the charges they make for loans to the public.

The cutback is from 5 1/2 per cent to 5 1/4 per cent, enough to signal the board's belief that the crisis that faced the dollar in April, when the rate rose from 5 to 5 1/2, has subsided considerably.

Even at the new level, one source noted, the rate is high, considering levels of the 1950s and 1960s. Thus, he said, it should still have an impact on inflation and the continuing balance of payments problem.

The reduction had been widely predicted in the financial community because of a steady easing of conditions in the money market. In effect, the board followed the market because its reason for staying at 5 1/2 per cent had largely evaporated.

The board itself described the change as "primarily technical to align the discount rate with the change in money market conditions which had occurred chiefly as a result of the increased fiscal restraint and a lower Treasury demand for financing resulting from the enactment of the tax increase and its related expenditure cuts."

The rate cut was proposed to the board by the directors of the Minneapolis Federal Reserve Bank and takes effect in Minneapolis today. The change will occur at the other 11 Federal Reserve banks around the nation only as their directors meet and vote to follow suit—a process that can take days or even weeks.

The last downturn in the discount rate, from 4 1/2 per cent to 4 per cent, occurred April 14, 1967. It climbed back up to 4 1/2 per cent on Nov. 20 and rose to 5 per cent March 15.

Tinkering with the rate is one means the government has of material candidates, former Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett and Ted Boswell, also pledged their support of the party nominee, but Boswell, an advocate of constitutional reform, said he was reserving the right to speak out on issues during the campaign.

Some observers believe Crank could more easily pull Boswell's first primary supporters (there were 85,000 of them) into his corner if he took a strong position favoring passage this November of the proposal to call a constitutional convention.

Rockefeller rode into office two years ago with a 50,000-vote victory over Jim Johnson, whose nomination followed a bitterly fought primary in which Johnson tore into his opponent, Frank Holt, as being the stalking horse of the establishment.

Mrs. Johnson also labeled Crank as the candidate of the "Little Rock governor-makers, the machine" but her criticism wasn't as severe as the lashings from her husband.

Holt vanished from the public scene after his defeat. He declined to comment on the election and it became apparent immediately that the party was badly split.

Johnson helped to anger some segments, particularly Negroes, by refusing to shake the hand of a Negro woman at a rally at Forrest City.

Rockefeller became the beneficiary of the turmoil.

Therefore, Mrs. Johnson's endorsement of Crank is a big step toward reunification of the party. Unlike 1966, Rockefeller now has a record which he must defend.

The issues this fall will center around the state's financial plight, Rockefeller's infrequent appearances in his office at the Capitol and, probably on the governor's drinking which was aired by Democratic legislators during the May special legislative session.

Rockefeller will defend the state finances on grounds that the legislature, of which Crank was a member, passed the bills appropriating the money. The governor will also probably hit at Crank's association with members of the "old guard."

At this stage, it appears that political observers are in for an interesting campaign leading up to an expected close election.

making sure that the intentional cooling off of the economy that is expected to occur in the second half of 1968 will not be too severe.

Economic indicators for July show, so far at least, no signs of a recession-inducing nosedive. Industrial production figures were once again on the upside.

Cities Plan Bill to Weaken Court Ruling

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Municipal League has been asked to draw up a bill that would weaken possible repercussions from a recent decision by the state Supreme Court.

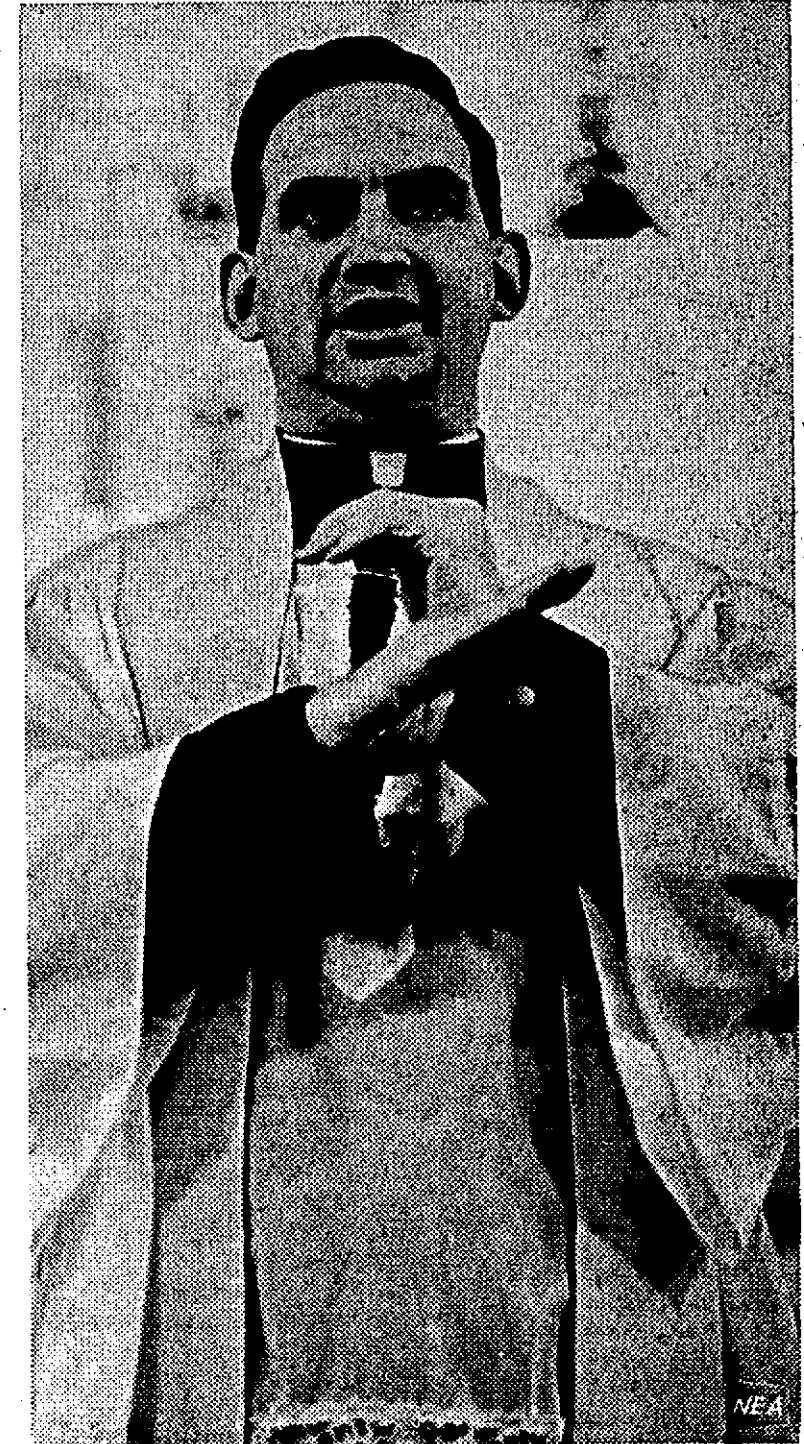

The Judiciary Committee of the state Legislative Council made the recommendation Thursday that the Municipal League prepare a bill to deal with problems which could arise from the court's ruling that cities are liable for tort actions.

Bill Fleming, assistant director of the Municipal League, said he felt that a bill making the cities liable for injuries resulting from the negligent operation of a motor vehicle by a city employee or injuries arising from dangerous or defective public buildings or defective, unsafe and dangerous roads and bridges would meet with favorable reaction from the cities.

He said, however, that only about 40 cities in the state could afford to pay a $100,000 judgment. He said the court's decision could mean "we'll have to abolish a lot of these small towns."

A study by the council indicated the legislature would be prohibited by the state Constitution from placing a ceiling on the amount of liability an individual can receive. The study said, however, that the legislature could pinpoint the areas in which cities could be held liable for damages.

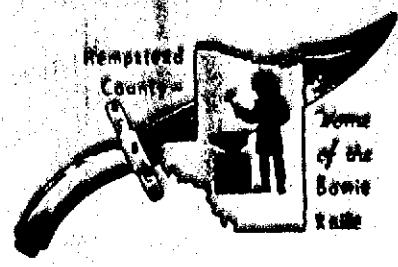

The committee said the legislature could hold public hearings on a bill, once it is drafted.

The sign language mass, designed for the deaf, received papal approval in 1965 and was officially sanctioned by the church in 1966 after a conference of U.S. and Canadian bishops. Uniform hand signs had to be adopted and some new ones created for such words as "archangel" and "substance." These photos by Larry Mulvehill show the Rev. Martin Hall conducting a mass for deaf mutes at St. Patrick's Church, Bay Shore, L.I. To Father Hall, the special service came naturally enough; he is the son of deaf-mute parents and has known the sign language for many years.

234 Enemy Killed in Fighting

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese forces, striking with tanks, artillery and planes to support the infantrymen, today reported killing 234 North Vietnamese in the hardest fighting in nearly a month along South Vietnam's northern frontier.

Spokesmen said three South Vietnamese soldiers were killed in the clashes Thursday while 15 government troops and 15 U.S. Marines were wounded.

Vastly superior allied firepower was considered responsible for the big difference in casualties.

The flareup along the northern edge of South Vietnam resulted from vigorous patrolling by the allied forces. Elsewhere across the country, the lull in ground action continued, and there was no sign of the start of the major enemy offensive which American officers expect before mid-September.

An enemy artillery barrage of 250 rounds, fired from inside the demilitarized zone at a South Vietnamese armored patrol, was the prelude to the heaviest action on the DMZ front Thursday.

The barrage destroyed one medium tank and an armored personnel carrier, and damaged another tank and three more personnel carriers. But the government troops moved out and found a main body of enemy troops several hours later north of the Gio Linh outpost and about one mile south of the DMZ, near the east coast.

A spokesman reported 165 enemy soldiers killed in a day-long battle, 50 of them by fighter-bomber strikes, before the remaining enemy escaped.

South Vietnamese headquarters said the action was in the same area where government troops killed 107 enemy soldiers a week earlier.

To the west along the DMZ, U.S. Marines reported killing 69 North Vietnamese in three clashes, one three miles north-east of the U.S. artillery base at Camp Carroll and the other two southeast of the Con Thien outpost, which is two miles below the DMZ.

In the fight near Camp Carroll, enemy troops dug in on high ground north of the Cam Lo River fired mortar shells on approaching Marines. The Leathernecks called in tanks, artillery and air strikes that drove the North Vietnamese from their positions. Then they pushed the enemy down the back side of the ridge.

The Marines reported 41 enemy soldiers killed and 13 Marines wounded in that battle.

Truth, Like Medicine, More Palatable When It's Sugar-coated

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — We all say we want the truth, but rarely do we want it put to us too plainly.

For the truth, like any other bitter medicine, is more palatable when sugar-coated.

That is why we so often have to resort, in communicating with one another, to double-talk: It enables us to dole out conversational sugar to another person without disturbing him with reality.

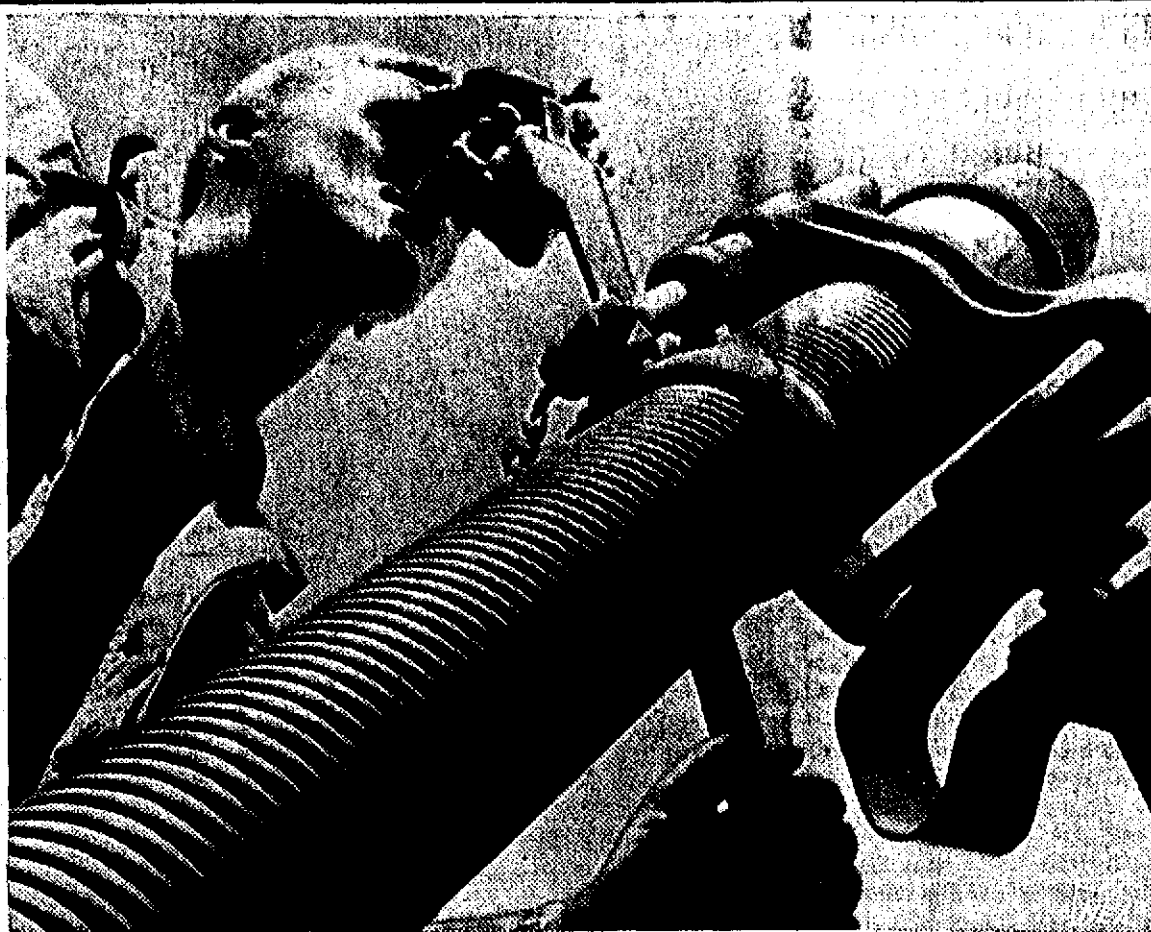

The ability to use double-talk is the hallmark of maturity and adulthood. So is the ability to recognize double-talk — and not be fooled by it.

For the beginner, here are a few typical examples of double-talk followed, in each case, by their literal translations:

"This job has unlimited opportunity."

— The pay is lousy.

"It's a lovely apartment. It even has a view of the river

State Demos Trying Hard to Unite

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Democratic chances of unseating Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller would appear to be greatly enhanced if the new surface unity in the Democratic party is real.

Several of the defeated candidates began rallying behind the Democratic nominee, Marion H. Crank, with statements calling for unity.

However, whether the party is able to heal the bitter wounds from 1966 from depend more on actions than words.

Mrs. Virginia Johnson and her husband, Jim, went to Crank's headquarters Tuesday night after it became apparent the veteran state representative had blunted her attempt to become Arkansas' first woman governor.

"My people and Marion Crank's people face a job — to defeat the incumbent," Mrs. Johnson said, with Crank at her side. "There is no bitterness between anyone. Let's go out and clean up the mess."

"This is the day the Republicans did not want to see," Crank declared. "Now the Democratic party is unified."

If the party actually is unified, Crank's remark would certainly prove to be true because Rockefeller took advantage of the split two years ago which helped him win the election.

Two other defeated gubernatorial candidates also

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration is putting the onus on North Vietnam to say directly or indirectly whether the current battlefield lull in South Vietnam is a sign of de-escalation.

Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford gave that word Thursday while making clear he believes the lull merely reflects a time of preparation for new enemy attacks.

Some critics have accused the administration of a hard-line interpretation of the recent decline in enemy military operations.

Their argument is that the lull should be viewed as Hanoi's response to President Johnson's bombing limitation, ordered March 31, and that the administration ought to follow through with another step of de-escalation: Stopping all the bombing.

Clifford contended in a Pentagon news conference that all signs point to the likelihood of a major new offensive, and that Hanoi could easily dispel the notion.

"Obviously, what I would regard as a clear signal would be the kind of signal that would be so easy for them to give," the defense chief said.

"All they have to do," he added, "is get word to us that they have reduced the level of combat and that they will continue to reduce the level of combat."

Negroes Fear Agnew Over Rights Issue

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The resignation of Maryland Gov. Spiro T. Agnew's only Negro staff member has underlined a top Republican Negro adviser's contention that party leaders fear black dissatisfaction is fermenting within the GOP.

Dr. Gilbert Ware, Agnew's liaison with the black community, said in a telegram of resignation that he was concerned over the governor's comments on "broad and vital questions of social justice."

At about the same time aides to the vice presidential hopeful were announcing Ware's resignation Thursday in Annapolis, Md., a top Negro adviser to Richard M. Nixon stepped out of a conference with Nixon in San Diego, Calif., to meet newsmen.

The adviser, J. Earl Dearing, Louisville prosecuting attorney, first used the word "revolt" to describe the Negro mood in the party but later said it might be better described as "seeming dissatisfaction or coolness."

But he urged Agnew to "meet with Negroes from the ghettos and formulate some positive programs."

In New York, Jackie Robinson, who quit the Republicans and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's staff over the nomination of Nixon and Agnew, announced he'll support Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Robinson, the first Negro in baseball's major leagues, had said earlier Nixon "prostituted himself and sold himself out to the bigots in the South."

In the Democratic camp: Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy picked up the endorsement of Vermont Gov. Philip H. Hoff, who had earlier supported the assassinated Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

But McCarthy's simultaneous rallies at several cities across the country fell $3 million short of the $5 million he was trying to raise, aides said.

Humphrey, campaigning through New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, said "a difference of emphasis" is a sign that he and Nixon don't agree on Vietnam.

Rotor Blade Separation Caused Crash

WASHINGTON (AP) — A rotor blade which separated in flight was blamed today for the crash of a passenger helicopter in Compton, Calif., which claimed 21 lives Wednesday.

The National Transportation Safety Board said one of the chopper's five blades separated from the central spindle, or hub, and the board's investigation turned up evidence of metal fatigue in the spindle assembly.

The Sikorsky S61, owned by Los Angeles Airways, was carrying 18 passengers and a crew of three from Los Angeles to Disneyland when it fell out of the sky near a children's playground in Compton.

G&F Commissioner in Move to Block Ouster Proceeding by WR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Raymond R. Farris of Biscoe, the first member of the state Game and Fish Commission to be subjected to ouster proceedings initiated by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, moved Thursday to block the proceedings.

He filed a suit in Pulaski Chancery Court charging that Rockefeller could not conduct a hearing on a record "made by others" under Amendment 35 of the state Constitution.

It was also announced Thursday that Rockefeller had accused Newt Halley of Rogers and Ernest Hogue of Welner, two other commission members, of using their positions for personal benefit.

Rockefeller plans to begin the ouster proceedings against Halley and Hogue, both appointees of former Gov. Orval E. Faubus, 20 days after they are notified of the charges. They were reportedly notified Tuesday.

Rockefeller had appointed a two-man hearing panel and evidence officer to present the charges against Farris.

Farris' suit said he had not been given a copy of a report compiled by the evidence officer, H. W. McMillan of Arkadelphia, and investigators.

The suit said, therefore, that Farris would "have no opportunity to rebut incorrect information" contained in the report. A hearing on Farris' suit was set for Tuesday.

The hearing for Farris began recently but was continued until next week because Farris was reportedly under treatment for tuberculosis. Farris said he had asked that the hearing be postponed until he was well enough to attend "or the matter has abated by his death."

Rockefeller, basing his accusations on information compiled by McMillan, accused Halley of four points of alleged misconduct in office and Hogue of one point.

They were: — That from 1964 through 1967 Halley Supply Co. did business

Schools at Blevins Open August 26

Grady Cathey, Superintendent, speaking for the Blevins Board of Education, announced today that at the beginning of the coming school year the dual system of education in the district will be discontinued.

This action is taken in response to a demand made on the Local Board by HEW that such action be taken immediately.

Quoting from the correspondence from HEW to the Local Board: "Unless the dual system of education is eliminated immediately, beginning in the fall of 1968, all federal assistance will be withheld from the district."

Among special financial transactions they noted $800

23 Missile Sites to Be Closed Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon announced today the Army will shut down 23 anti-bomber missile batteries in 12 states to save money.

The action is the latest in a series of economy measures being taken by the Pentagon to cut fiscal 1969 spending by as much as $3 billion.

The Pentagon said deactivation of the 23 Nike-Hercules firing sites and seven headquarters installations will save $18.8 million in the current budget year, $54 million in succeeding years.

The Pentagon is expected to bear the brunt of a demand for spending reductions totaling $6 billion which the Congress made in return for passing President Johnson's 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

Closing the sites also will drop active Army strength by 4,200 men. Eight of the missile units are operated by the National Guard.

"After careful study, these sites, in 12 states, were found to contribute least to the effectiveness of the defense of the continental United States," the announcement said. "It was originally planned to close some of these sites by the summer of 1970."

The Nike-Hercules is a 39-foot missile capable of shooting down 2,000 mile-an-hour bombers.

The first batteries became operational only 10 years ago, but the entire air-defense system has been undergoing considerable streamlining in recent months.

The announcement said these sites would be closed:

Van Nuys and Newhall, Calif.; Lamont, Ill.; Munster, Ind.; Selfridge Air Force Base, Mich.; Irwin, Pa.; Edgemont, Pa.; Annapolis, Md.; Old Bridge and Hazlet, N.J.; Cromwell, Conn.

Marine, Hecker, and Grafton, Ill.; Pacific, Lawson, and Pleasant Hill, Mo.; Gardner and Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.; Denton, Terrell, Alvarado, and Camp Wolters, Tex.

The seven headquarters to be closed are at Saugus, Calif.; Tappan, N.Y.; Scott AFB, Ill.; Pleasant Hill, Mo.; Olathe, Kan., and Duncanville, Tex. The latter has two headquarters installations.

The Pentagon said National Guard units at the air-defense sites in Missouri and Texas will be inactivated.

Technicians at the Missouri and Texas sites will be released and the military personnel will be transferred to other National Guard units.

Two double battery sites are being reduced to single batteries at Warrington, Pa., and Ft. Tilden, N.Y.

Affected personnel in Maryland, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Illinois are being transferred to other National Guard units.

The phase-outs are the second major economy move taken by the Army. Earlier, the Pentagon decided not to activate the 6th Infantry Division at Ft. Campbell, Ky., as originally planned, to save $125 million.

Watershed Group Meets August 19

There will be a meeting of the people concerned of the South and Middle Fork Ozan Creek Watershed on Monday evening, August 19, at 8:30 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to finish the petitions that are being circulated and present them to the Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors.
